2021/22 SEASON
175th Anniversary

2021/22 SEASON

making music

This season's music

Welcome to our programme for 2021/22, the 175th anniversary season of the choir.

We are delighted to welcome you to our new concert programme after this long enforced break.

Our November concert presents music by some familiar composers such as Fauré, Brahms and Rachmaninov, but also contemporary composer Patrick Hawes. As usual, the carol concerts will put us all in a festive mood at the start of the Christmas period.

As the highlight of our 2021/22 season, the choir will perform Brahms Ein deutsches Requiem, accompanied by the brilliant London Mozart Players. We'll conclude the year in May with a jazz concert in Holy Trinity Church, Exmouth, taking us into slightly less familiar territory with Will Todd Songs of Peace and Stephen Tanner Jazz Te Deum and Jubilate.

Howard Ionascu, Director of Music

Howard Ionascu, the choir's Director of Music, is a highly experienced singer and choral conductor. He is also Musical Director of the London-based choir Laudate. In the past he has worked with choirs such as the Bournemouth Sinfonietta Choir, City of London Choir and King's Choral Society, and was Director of Music at the King's School, Canterbury. In January 2019, Howard took up the post of Director of Chapel Music and Quiristers at Winchester College, following five years as Director of the Junior Academy of the Royal Academy of Music.

Friends of Exeter Philharmonic Choir

If you enjoy our concerts, why not become a Friend of Exeter Philharmonic Choir and help us to continue making music in Exeter, as we have done since 1846? There are two categories of Friend: Patrons, with subscriptions starting at £60 a year, and Supporters, starting at £25 a year. For full details see www.exeterphilharmonic.org.uk/support-us, contact Sarah Dean, Friends Club Manager, on 01395 271867 or email friends@exeterphilharmonic.org.uk.
